For Immediate Release

I wholeheartedly endorse Trudy Berry for VA House District 61.

The voters of district 61 will find no better advocate for the hard working families of South Central VA. From her personal experiences serving the Air Force, to being a military spouse, working in the State Department, volunteering in her community in the school system and her church.

When being dismissed by a politician as “only one person”, she took that as a challenge instead of an insult and decided to run. Her commitment to her community, this country and to her faith, she will work tirelessly to help and represent all citizens of her district.

I cannot think of someone who is more passionate, dedicated and has the desire to serve her district as she served her country. There is only one clear choice for the best person to represent the people of the 61st district and that’s Trudy.

My name is Mat Matsunaga and as a Virginian and candidate for the Virginia House, I endorse Trudy Berry.
